

Intercomprehension AND Plurilingualism

ASSETS FOR ITALIAN LANGUAGE IN THE USA

EDITORS

Roberto Dolci AND Anthony Julian Tamburri

Transactions 3

JOHN D. CALANDRA ITALIAN AMERICAN INSTITUTE
QUEENS COLLEGE, THE CITY UNIVERSITY OF NEW YORK

Intercomprehension AND Plurilingualism

ASSETS FOR ITALIAN LANGUAGE IN THE USA

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Preface

ANTHONY J. TAMBURRI

Foreword

CARLO DAVOLI

Introduction

ROBERTO DOLCI

On America's Foreign Language Education Policy and the Foreign Language Deficit
ROBERTO DOLCI

Intercomprehension Studies in Europe: History, Current Methodology, and Future Developments
ELISABETTA BONVINO

The Ties That Bind: Italian for Spanish Speakers in Intercomprehension
CLORINDA DONATO and CEDRIC JOSEPH OLIVA

We Can Learn Through Languages Because We Are Defined by Languages
PIERRE ESCUDÉ

Integrating Plurilingualism into Curriculum Design: Toward a Plurilingual Shift
BARBARA SPINELLI

The Florida State University Experience: Design, Development, and Implementation of Italian for Spanish Speakers Courses
FABRIZIO FORNARA and IRENE ZANINI-CORDI

The French/Italian for Spanish Speakers Project: From Idea to Permanent Program
MARKUS MULLER

Mona Lisa in the Classroom: An Educational Proposal for Integrated Training in Intercomprehension
DIEGO CORTÉS VELÁSQUEZ

French and Italian for Spanish Speakers: San Pedro High School—A Practical Study of the Logistics of Teaching Another Romance Language to Spanish Speakers
IDA LANZA and DIANE HARTUNIAN